Soldiers Under Banner Of "The Kingfish" Face Mayor's Police Today

New Orleans Tense Fearing First Hostile Move by Either Side Might Precipitate Clash Between Soldiers and Police.

NO DECISION

War Department Probably Will Not Take Action in Dispute, Says Acting War Secretary.

New Orleans, Aug. 1 (AP)—National Guardsmen, carrying arms under the banner of Senator Huey P. Long, faced Mayor T. Semmes Walmsley's police today, ready to battle for control of New Orleans.

The city was tense, fearing the first hostile move by either side might precipitate an actual clash between the state soldiers and the city police.

Senator Long, self-titled "Kingfish," moved about like a war general, "commanding" 500 National Guardsmen mobilized at Jackson barracks on the edge of the city.

The embattled Walmsley, once a friend of Long, held 400 policemen in readiness to resist any possible attempt of Long to usurp the city police power.

Almost two score militiamen held the city registration voting office where they stormed Monday night. Machine guns looked from the windows across a narrow street toward the city hall.

Governor O. K. Allen's proclamation of partial martial law, applying to the city hall area, continued in effect.

The whole affair pointed to the coming congressional primary in September, in which Walmsley and Long are supporting rival candidates.

Defer Final Action.

Washington, Aug. 1 (AP)—Deferring a final decision until an official request for a ruling is received, Acting Secretary of War Woodring has informed a representative of Mayor T. Semmes Walmsley of New Orleans that the War Department probably would take no action in the dispute between the Walmsley and Senator Huey Long factions in Louisiana.

ATTEMPT TO SMASH PLANE RECORDS WITH PAYLOAD.

Bridgeport, Conn., August 1 (AP)—The Pan-American Airways flying boat S-42, largest in the United States, and already holder of virtually all the world records for altitude attained by commercial aircraft with payload, took the air from the Housatonic river at Stratford this morning in an attempt to smash eight world records to speed with payload.

Captain Boris Sergievsky, chief test pilot of Sikorsky Aviation Corporation, Stratford, which built the plane, was at the controls. The five others aboard were Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, technical advisor to the Airways Company; Edwin Mueck, Airways chief pilot, two mechanics and a GRWO operator.

The eight hour flight was being made around a course of 210.70 miles which turns at George Washington Bridge, New York city; Staten Island Light, Fire Island Light, Block Island, Point Judith, R. I., and back to Stratford.

Reports at George Washington Bridge and Staten Island showed the plane was holding to about 155 miles an hour on her first swing around.

The entire flight will comprise 1,242 miles.

MOVE TO ELIMINATE SWEATSHOP LAUNDRY OWNERS

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 1 (AP)—New York state today moved to eliminate sweatshop laundry owners who "persistently have evaded or defied the law" by their failure to pay minimum fair wages to women and minor employees.

Industrial Commissioner Elmer F. Andrews, as a result of a state-wide investigation, issued a mandatory order effective next Monday making laundry owners paying less than the minimum wage to this group liable to fines and imprisonment.

Affecting more than 2,500 laundries employing 22,000 women and minors, the order imposes penalties of $5 to $50 in fines and from 10 to 90 days imprisonment for employers paying less than 27 1/2 cents an hour for a 40 hour week (31 cents an hour in plants within a 15 mile radius of New York city) with time and one-half for overtime above 45 hours.

The law also requires a ten per cent bonus for less than 40 hours a week.

Each individual underpayment in each week will be a separate offense, Commissioner Andrews said.

Desperado Captured.

Tulsa, Okla., Aug. 1 (AP)—Jim Clark, southwestern desperado, today was heading back to the Kansas State Penitentiary at Lansing, from which he twice escaped in daring breaks in the last 14 months. The 26-year-old bank robber was captured here by a government agent early today as he started to drive away from an apartment house where he and five companions had been staying.

Resume Hearing In Bus Disaster

White Plains, N. Y., Aug. 1 (AP)—The Westchester summer grand jury today resumed consideration of indictments for the fatal Ossining bus wreck.

Presentation of evidence was to occupy today and tomorrow, District Attorney Frank H. Coyne said.

The district attorney, who plans to ask for at least two manslaughter indictments as the result of the death of 19 Brooklyn persons in the flaming bus, said evidence will not be completely presented today against any individual and that the grand jury will not be asked this afternoon to vote on any indictments.

The vote on indictments will not be taken until after completion of the case sometime tomorrow afternoon.

The first witness today was Andro Shramko, a mechanic in the Rialto bus garage, East 105th street, who said last week he had been asked to testify falsely about inspecting the bus before its fatal trip.

He said that Nicola D'Amico, manager of the garage and one of the owners of the Town and Country Bus Company, had "coached" him. D'Amico signed a waiver of immunity and testified before the grand jury last Wednesday that he had ordered Shramko to put the bus in shape and that it had been done.

D'Amico was subpoenaed to testify again today and again signed a waiver of immunity from his testimony.

Four Cases Before Judge Culliton

Four cases were brought to the attention of Judge Culliton in police court this morning. Frank Ulrich of 38 East Strand and Jack Clair of 71 Chambers street, were both arrested shortly after 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon on warrants sworn out by Chief of Police J. Allan Wood charging both men with violating the ABC law. They were recently arrested on similar charges and hearings in those cases were adjourned to August 9. This morning Ulrich was represented by Attorney Chris Flanagan and the hearing adjourned to August 7. Clair was represented by Attorney John M. Cashin and the hearing set down for August 9.

Evelyn S. Harbeck of Wilbur avenue, arrested for parking in the restricted area on John street, was fined $2.

James Bradley of Newkirk avenue, arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct in using loud language, was given a sentence of 30 days in jail, which was suspended and he was placed on probation for six months.

He had pleaded for another chance and Judge Culliton in imposing sentence told Bradley he was now giving him the chance and to take advantage of it.

Concessions Obtained From Both Sides

Washington, Aug. 1 (AP)—Labor Department conciliators at the Chicago stockyard strike scene reported to the department today they had obtained concessions from both sides and would hold another meeting this afternoon.

The conciliators did not say just what concessions the striking cattle handlers and their employers had made. Department officials, however, regarded the report as a "hopeful sign."

W. F. White, Harry E. Sheck and Robert M. Pilkington, the conciliators, are working with the Chicago Regional Labor Board.

They said the meat cutters' strike was caused by a dispute about seniority rights and was not a sympathy walkout.

TERA Allotment Is Reduced $4,500

The local TERA board received word today that the August allotment of funds from the state TERA for work and home relief in Kingston would amount to $53,000, which is a reduction of $4,500 over the allotment for July, which amounted to $57,500.

300 Dead or Missing in Floods.

Tokyo, August 1 (AP)—The Korean government-general announced today that more than 300 persons are dead or missing following recent floods in South Korea. The losses were estimated at about $2,000,000. It was announced that 12,000 houses were swept away, 53,000 founded, and more than 300,000 acres of farms had been destroyed.

10 Days in Jail.

Tony Andrade, 24, of New Palis, was committed to the Ulster county jail today for 10 days, following arraignment before Justice J. C. Barnes on a charge of assault in the third degree.

Albany, N. Y., August 1 (AP)—

The Assembly today passed the Porter bill appropriating $13,346,000 additional state aid for public schools. The vote was 130 to 0.

Passage of the measure followed a bitter political fight in which Governor Lehman's administration of the state's finances was again attacked by the Republicans.

Assemblyman Irwin Stielgus defended the governor and made a plea for enactment of additional taxes at the special session to take care of the new appropriation.

Almost at the same time, Senator Lazarus Joseph, Bronx Democrat, and chairman of the legislative committee studying the mortgage investment situation, introduced 13 bills carrying out the recommendations of the committee.

He announced that a public hearing would be held Monday afternoon. Passage of the Democratic county government reform bills by the Republican-controlled Assembly appeared definitely blocked after a renewal of the fight on this question today.

5 New Proposals.

Governor Lehman laid five new proposals before the special session of the legislature today, chief among them being one to cut the New York city tax reserve from $50,000,000 to $25,000,000.

This measure was in accordance with an agreement reached yesterday between the bankers who finance New York city credit, the city administration and the governor.

Incorporated in the governor's message recommending this legislation was his suggestion for a law authorizing the city's comptroller to issue revenue notes for the purpose of paying or retiring revenue notes.

Other proposals submitted by Lehman included:

A request from Comptroller Morris S. Tremaine for authority to accept bonds of the United States and of cities in New York state as security for state funds on deposit.

A request from Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia of New York city for two bills protecting the pension rights of employees transferred to the new department of purchase and uniformed members of the sanitation department who are given promotion.

Request of the town of Mamaroneck for legislation validating acts of the two boards with regard to local taxes.

COMMITTED NO CRIME SAYS PHARMACY STUDENT

Oklahoma City, Aug. 1 (AP)—Facing murder charges in the death of Miss Marian Mills, former University of Oklahoma beauty queen, Neal Myers, young pharmacy student, surrendered to his attorney here today after eluding officers for three weeks.

Tired and worn from his wanderings in three states, the 21-year-old university student appeared at the home of his attorney, W. P. Morrison, and disclaimed responsibility for the death of Miss Mills at Norman, Okla., July 10.

"I committed no crime," he cried. "I just couldn't face the disgrace."

Young Myers fled from Norman following the death of the girl at the apartment of Mrs. Hazel Brown, a fraternity house cook. Mrs. Brown told authorities the girl had been taking quack medicines in an effort to avert motherhood.

Miss Mills was chosen by Frederick March, the actor, as the university's "most beautiful girl" in 1930. She was found dead by Dr. E. F. Stephens, who had been summoned by Myers just before his flight.

NEW YORK STATE POLICE CONFERENCE AT JAMESTOWN

Jamestown, N. Y., Aug. 1 (AP)—Policemen from almost every city and village in New York state were gathering here today for the ninth annual New York state police conference. The conference will end Saturday.

Tomorrow night the policemen will be addressed by Edward P. Mulrooney, chairman of the state alcohol beverage control board; Attorney General John J. Bennett; Speaker Joseph A. McGinnis of the Assembly; Robert H. Jackson, assistant general counsel of the Treasury Department; and Representative Daniel A. Reed.

Officers will be elected Saturday.

Treasury Receipts

Washington, Aug. 1 (AP)—The position of the treasury July 26 was: Receipts $9,159,502.48; expenditures $13,851,578.71; balance $2,439,608,818.12; customs receipts for the month $18,862,544.40; receipts for the fiscal year (since July 1) $212,443,425.40; expenditures $492,162,956.80 (including $259,371,251.73 of emergency expenditures); excess of expenditures $279,729,541.50; gold assets $7,927,497,326.74.

Seize Headquarters of Austrian Government Striking Truck Drivers Today Start Mopping-up Arrest the Ringleaders Campaign Against Nazis

Roundup of Officials Started Because They Defied Orders of Military Rule by Holding a Meeting Without a Permit.

SOLDIERS CONTROL

Organized Movement To Stop All Truck Transportation in Defiance of Military Rule Smashed.

Minneapolis, Aug. 1 (AP)—Men in khaki with guns on wheels seized headquarters of striking truck drivers today, arrested the ringleaders, and smashed before it got started, an organized movement to stop all truck transportation in defiance of military rule.

With the National Guard in full control and occupants of the building dispersed, Adjutant General E. A. Walsh mapped a plan of action designed to break up any other unauthorized meetings of strikers.

The roundup of these officials, said General Walsh, "was started because they defied orders of military rule by holding a meeting at the parade grounds last night without a permit. Effective immediately, any pickets cruising the city in automobiles will be arrested."

The four field machine guns drawn up before the entrance, rolled back to the armory, the troops shooed their Tommy guns and gas guns, and all except the few men left as sentinels, hiked back to the armory within two hours after they had struck in the gray light of early dawn to meet no resistance.

A few early risers, on their way to work, stopped to watch from the nearby corners. Occupants of the building facing the headquarters crept through curtained windows as Col. Elmer McDevitt, provost marshal, went inside to arrest the ringleaders. He found but two, however, and search was started for the remaining 8 or 10.

While the approximately 1,000 guards carried out their orders in the raid, a like number of armed troops, called in from the Fair Grounds where they have been billeted since military rule was declared by Governor Floyd B. Olson a week ago today, awaited developments at the armory. They were not needed, however.

Sharp Curtailment In Liquor Licenses

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 1 (AP)—The number of taverns, grills and other beer drinking establishments in New York state had decreased at least 20 per cent today.

With no further extension of time for renewal of applications forthcoming from the state alcoholic beverage control board, it was estimated that at least this percentage of places were forced to close their doors because of refusal of county and state officials to renew their licenses which expired last night.

Various reasons for the sharp curtailment in the number of licenses were given, including:

(1) Specification in the new law that no license may be issued to any place bearing a resemblance to the "old time saloon."

(2) Existence of too many beer places, particularly in the congested sections of cities.

(3) The requirement in the new law that restaurant beer licenses be issued only to places which actually serve cooked food.

(4) Reports that many places have been subjects of complaints and scenes of disorders.

Beer Licenses Are Extended Two Weeks

Local police headquarters received a teletype message this morning from the ABC board in Albany that an extension of two weeks had been granted to those holding wholesale and retail beer licenses. All beer licenses had expired at midnight Tuesday. Under the ruling, renewed all beer licenses will be extended to midnight of August 14.

Consistory Meeting.

A meeting of the consistory of the First Dutch Church will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the chapel. A full attendance is desired.

PALACE HOTEL PROPRIETOR SHOT AND SERIOUSLY HURT

Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 1 (AP)—Harry Durger, proprietor of the Palace Hotel in Brooklyn, was shot and seriously wounded early today after three robbers forced the night clerk to lead them to his room.

The clerk, Robert Steele, said he turned $5 over to the robbers. They wanted more. "Where's the boss," one of them asked.

"Upstairs asleep," they forced Steele to lead them up. Durger opened the door and, seeing the gunmen, slammed it. One of them fired through the door, striking him, and then all three ran. The hotel man was taken to Trinity Hospital, where it was said he had little chance to live.

Accidental Drowning.

Ashland, N. H., Aug. 1 (AP)—Harold Jefferson Coolidge, prominent Boston attorney, met death in Squam Lake last night by accidental drowning, indirectly caused by a heart attack. Coroner L. M. Orton announced today. Dr. Orton said Coolidge, while walking about the shore of Long Island, on which his summer home was located, suffered a heart attack and tumbled into the lake. His body was found in shallow water, close to the shore. Dr. Orton said.

Points Accusing Finger at Germany For Blood Which Flowed From the Nazi Attempt to Seize the Government.

NO SALARIES

Order Forbids Salary Payments to Public Employees Suspected of Aiding the Nazi Revolt.

By WADE WERNER (Copyright, 1934, by The Associated Press)

Vienna, Aug. 1.—With armed opposition crushed, the Austrian government today began a mopping-up campaign against Nazis inside and outside the country.

On the one hand was the issuance of an order forbidding salary payments to any public employees suspected of aiding or encouraging the Nazi revolt; with the other hand, Austria officially pointed an accusing finger at Germany for the blood which flowed from the Nazi attempt to seize the government one week ago today.

An announcement approved by the cabinet said directions to Austrian Nazis were sent into the country several weeks ago from Germany.

The plans, which included the possibility of civil war, said Walter Adam, propaganda chief, in a radio address, were seized in the shoes of a man arrested in upper Austria. This man confessed receiving $100 for delivering the documents—now partially decoded, Adam said.

Included in the mopping-up campaign was the court martial at Innsbruck of two Nazis who killed the commandant of police there last Wednesday. A Nazi companion of the two who were hanged here yesterday in connection with the actual killing of Chancellor Dollfuss was expected to go on trial at another court martial in Vienna.

The order against salary payments to Nazi-sympathizing public employees was telegraphed to all federal, provincial and district disbursement officers. Denunciations of individual employees are to be submitted to the nearest police headquarters which will investigate doubtful cases—the suspects meanwhile remaining without salary until the case is cleared up. It is not yet known what per cent of the government payroll will be affected.

Twenty federal employees who were reported to have cried "Heil Hitler!" when they were captured at the chancellery by the Nazi raiders last Wednesday were said to be among those who got no pay checks.

Another Economy

The government placed another economy into effect with the issuance of new five-shilling silver coins (worth approximately $1, U. S. currency) to supplant five-shilling notes. The notes required gold coverage but the coins do not.

The cabinet is still delaying action on approval or rejection of Vice Chancellor Franz von Papen as a special German envoy to Vienna.

A startling interview was given by Franz Winkler, former vice chancellor under the late Chancellor Dollfuss, in which he charged the Fascist Heimwehr (Home Guard) had planned to overthrow Dollfuss until the Nazi putsch beat them to it.

The Heimwehr is now a most important cog in a true government with its leader, Prince Rudiger Ernst von Starhemberg, serving as vice chancellor.

Winkler, who is "somewhere in Czechoslovakia," keeping his exact location a secret, denied knowledge of the Nazi putsch before it took place.

"However," he said, "I knew that a much more radical plan to overthrow the Dollfuss dictatorship had been worked out by the Heimwehr. I knew very well that Heimwehr leaders had submitted plans to Nazi leaders to this effect."

Hitler Reported Planning To Be Both President and Chancellor

Mrs. Bedell's Body Is Recovered From River

Young Woman Jumped From Steamer

Last Sunday While the Boat Was Passing Cruger's Island—Glascow Men Find Body.

The body of Mrs. Mary Bedell, 35, wife of Earl Bedell of New York city, was recovered this morning from the Hudson river by Dominick Mazzaccone and Ramon Diaz of Glascow who found the body floating in the river near midstream around 4:30 o'clock. Coroner W. N. Conner was notified and went to the scene and took charge of the body.

Mrs. Bedell is the young woman who jumped from the Hudson river last Sunday afternoon while the boat was passing Cruger's Island, about 10 miles north of this city.

The body was discovered on the Glascow flats and when removed from the water a wrist watch worn by the young woman had stopped at 2:55, fixing the hour at which she jumped from the north bound boat. Coroner Conner immediately got in touch with the young woman's husband in New York city and he left for Kingston to make arrangements for the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. Bedell had been vacationing at Newburgh and on Sunday started to Albany aboard the Day Line boat to visit Elvin Bedell of 19 Maplewood street, Albany. Shortly after the boat had left Kingston a deck-hand saw her in the water and sounded the woman overboard signal. The boat was stopped and an effort made to locate the body. At Albany the husband was questioned by the police and according to the police the couple had been in a saloon on the steamer drinking when suddenly Mrs. Bedell jumped overboard. Her husband, startled for the moment, gave no alarm until a deck-hand rapped at the door. No reason was given for the act and after questioning the husband the Albany police permitted him to go.

8 Senatorial Tests In August Primaries

(By The Associated Press)

Contests for nominations to eight United States Senate seats, now equally divided between Republican and Democratic incumbents, will be decided in primary elections in August.

In all, 15 states—eight in the south and seven in the west and middle west—will cast election ballots.

Virginia's primary will be in the nature of a formality due to lack of opposition to Senator Harry F. Byrd and eight Democratic representatives. Texas stages a run-off election to its July primary, with Senator Tom Connally safely "in".

In addition to nine Senate designations, including Virginia, candidates will be named for 118 seats in the house and for nine governorships.

Election dates: August 2—Tennessee; August 4—Kentucky; August 7—Virginia, West Virginia, Missouri, Kansas; August 14—Arkansas, Nebraska, Idaho, Ohio; August 21—Wyoming; August 25—Texas (run-off); August 28—California, Mississippi, South Carolina.

Rivalry for Democratic senatorial nominations is particularly keen in Ohio, West Virginia, Missouri, Nebraska, California and Mississippi.

Von Hindenburg Is Weaker During Night

Neudeck, Germany, Aug. 1 (AP)—President Paul von Hindenburg grew weaker during the night, said the first bulletin issued today by his physicians.

The bulletin, issued at 8:30 a. m., said:

"The President had a quiet night. There is no fever but his weakness increased. The President is fully conscious."

A cordon of black-shirted Schutz Staffel (picked Nazi guards) men was thrown about Von Hindenburg's ancestral seat early this morning.

Neudeck Castle is now sealed from the outer world by both secret police and the Schutz Staffel men, preventing correspondents from getting even a glimpse of the residence. Chancellor Hitler left Berlin this morning for Neudeck, accompanied by his staff.

Local TERA Has Resumed Working

All projects of the local TERA which had been shut down when the local board was forced to suspend operations the latter part of July owing to funds being exhausted, resumed work this morning and this week approximately 500 men will be given work, working in two shifts. The work of building a new sewer in Hoffman street at Mary's avenue was started today, as well as work on the East Chester street and Lancaster street sewers. Work on some of the streets was also taken up.

If Von Hindenburg Died Hitler Would Control Affairs in Few Minutes

Hitler Goes To Neudeck To Be At Von Hindenburg's Side, After Ordering Cabinet From Vacations For Session.

Great Speculation Expected Move Would Give Him a Dictatorship as Absolute as Any in the World.

By LOUIS D. LOCHNER (Copyright, 1934, by The Associated Press)

Berlin, August 1 (AP)—Adolf Hitler intends to be both president and chancellor of Germany, one of his close friends told The Associated Press today.

This would give Hitler a dictatorship as absolute as any in the world. Hitler fled to Neudeck today to be at Von Hindenburg's side, after ordering the cabinet back from vacations for a session tonight.

The German press was commanded not to speculate on Von Hindenburg's successor.

Physicians watching over the president as he lies near death at Neudeck, East Prussia, reported he grew weaker during the night. The end of the 85-year-old leader seemed near.

Despair gripped many conservatives who had looked upon Hindenburg as an anchor against extreme Nazism.

If Von Hindenburg dies, The Associated Press informant said, Hitler would call the cabinet together and read a brief law concentrating all power to himself as president and chancellor.

"The whole thing will take but a few minutes," he said, "for the cabinet will of course endorse the proposal.

Says Naval Ratios Should Be Maintained

Washington, Aug. 1.—Secretary of the Navy today said that the navy is maintaining its strength in all categories of ships, and that it is not necessary to increase the naval ratios between the leading naval powers should be maintained.

The navy secretary said he was expressing merely a personal opinion. His statement was made in reply to questions as to his attitude toward a statement by the Japanese premier that expressed dissatisfaction with the 1922 naval ratio between the United States, Great Britain and Japan.

"I do not believe we should give up the position I always have taken," Swanson said. "The naval ratio in London and distribution of naval strength as they thought it right. Naval strength is relative. If we abandon the present ratio there is no telling where we will go."

Ohioans in Many States

To the building up of other states, Ohio has contributed more in proportion to population than any of her sisters, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer. At the beginning of the century, for example, no less than 1,250,000 natives of the Buckeye state were residing in other states and territories.

In Indiana there were 200,000; Illinois, 140,000; Iowa and Michigan, 80,000 each; Pennsylvania, 60,000; New York and California, 30,000 each; Colorado, 25,000; Washington, 20,000; Oklahoma, 15,000; Texas, 10,000; Montana, 7,000; Massachusetts 5,500; and in remote Alaska, 700.

Financial and Commercial

By VICTOR TUBANK

Associated Press Financial Writer. New York, Aug. 1.—Financial markets generally displayed an upward trend today despite the lack of fresh news incentives and a continued lack of trading stimulus.

Stocks stepped up fractions to around 3 or more points as various operators picked up selected issues on the theory that "something" must happen to pull the list out of its stalemate. Many European and domestic situations, however, were still cloudy and there was no rush of buyers on the slow ascent.

Shares of U. S. Smelting and Homestake got up about 3 points each, and other metals up a point or so included Howe Sound, American Smelting, Dome, McIntyre and Alaska Juneau. California Packing advanced 2 to a new high for the year and Armour of Illinois Preferred (new) gained more than 1.

Among others, up 1 to around 2, were American Telephone, U. S. Steel Common and Preferred, Du Pont, American Sugar Refining, Auburn, Corn Products, American Can, Borden, Chrysler, Case, Allied Chemical, Westinghouse, American Commercial Alcohol, Schenley, Johns-Manville, Santa Fe, Union Pacific and United Fruit. The rails and utilities were quiet. Wright Aeronautical jumped points, scattered 10-share transactions. United Aircraft and Douglas steadied.

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of our beloved daughter, Katherine Cecelia Haines, who departed from this earth a year ago today.

Just a year today our darling passed away.

Seems God didn't want to leave her with us long.

But the memories of her sweet face still hold sway.

And we know that she's in Heaven, her heart a song.

THE MAN WHO HOLDS THE PEACE OF EUROPE IN THE HOLLOW OF HIS HAND: Premier Mussolini, who has massed army divisions at strategic points near the Austrian border and the Yugoslavian frontier, reviewing infantry at recent military exercises in Rome. Yugoslavia has advised Italy that intervention in Austria would produce "grave consequences."

THE HOPE OF THE MONARCHISTS OF AUSTRIA: Otto, the son of the last Hapsburg Emperor of the Dual Monarchy, with his mother, the former Empress Zita, whom supporters in Vienna are planning to put on the throne.

YUGOSLAVIA CAUTIONS ITALY ON INTERVENTION IN AUSTRIA: King Alexander of Yugoslavia inspecting his troops at a review, a few weeks before his Foreign Office, through its Legation in Berlin, issued a warning that intervention in Austrian affairs "in case of special complications" should be settled by the League of Nations and not by any of the nations bordering on Austria.

AMERICANS WHO WON THE DAVIS CUP DOUBLES AT WIMBLEDON: Lester Stiefen (left) and George M. Lott, Jr., who defeated the English team, George Patrick Hughes and Harold G. N. Lee, to win their match in the challenge round of the Davis Cup tournament in England.

JAPANESE CIVILIANS TAKE PART IN "WAR PREPARATIONS": Telephone girls at Osaka learning to use their gas masks on a day when the city's entire population was drilled in the precautions to be taken in case of an air raid.

GLORIA STUART WEDS IN MEXICO: The film star, formerly the wife of Gordon Newell, sculptor, and her husband, Arthur Sheekman, scenario writer, whom she married recently in Agua Caliente, at the studio in Hollywood where she is appearing in a picture.

JUST AS THE STRATOSPHERE BALLOON BURST ABOVE NEBRASKA: The huge gas bag at the instant it went to pieces hurling the gondola with its delicate instruments to the ground. The three aviators, using their parachutes, reached the ground uninjured.

THE TORN STRATOSPHERE BALLOON FALLING: Photograph taken by an army camera man at 2,000 feet, showing how the ripped bag began piling on the gondola to which its crew of three were still clinging, before landing in a field near Loomis, Neb. Picture copyright by National Geographic Society.

THE END OF THE STRATOSPHERE FLIGHT: The gas-bag and its gondola (at bottom) as they landed in a Nebraska cornfield. At top and center are the parachutes of two of the three descending aeronauts. Picture copyright by National Geographic Society.

MARTIAL LAW IN THE "MODEL VILLAGE" IN WISCONSIN: Pickets marching past a National Guardsman on duty in front of the main entrance to the Kohler Plumbing plant at Kohler, after Governor Schroeder imposed military rule following a riot in which two were killed and many injured.

CHECK-UP ON BUSES BEGINS: Policemen examine the engine after inspecting the brakes of a bus on the Rotten Post Road at Rye, in a drive of authorities in the Metropolitan area to prevent a recurrence of the accident at Ossining when a car with faulty brakes crashed, killing 12 persons.

How long the average man can last Sunday mornings often depends upon the length of the sermon.

The Small Town Ways
I love the quiet pattern of our small town ways.
As steady as the sunshine across the summer days.
Where hours are square for duty, and the nights come down
As soberly and sweetly as a quilted gown.
I love the quiet softness that holds a baby's head,
There's a misty breath of heaven around a little bed
Where all the cares and worries of a mother's day drift away forgotten, while all the angels stay.

Story of a New-wed. For the first few months he hated parting from his wife. After that he hated parting to her.

It was 2 a. m. when the club telephone rang, and a bachelor member answered it.
Angry Feminine Voice—Is my husband there?
Bachelor—No, he's gone home.
Voice (snapping)—How do you know? I didn't even tell you his name!
Bachelor—You didn't need to. When this phone rang every darned married man in the place grabbed his hat and ducked out.

Where Ignorance Is Bliss
It's foolish to invent excuses to go down and look over your husband's new stenographer.

Girl—I've come from the employment bureau, ma'am. They said you wanted a servant.
Lady of the House—I do all the work myself.
Girl—Then the place will suit me.

The main trouble with most family financial budgets is that there is no column to provide for the weak moments.

Often it seems some people never find out that there is more to life than a swelled head.

Wee Betty—Mother, I feel so tired.
Mother—Excited, dear? I don't think you know what excited means.
Wee Betty—Why, it's being in a hurry all over.

The person who thinks a question has only two sides never listened to a dozen congressmen.

Jim—You love your wife, don't you?

Sam—Of course I do.
Jim—Then you mean to say you caught this fellow making love to her and you won't do anything about it?

Sam—Well—er—yes. You see—
Jim—Why don't you give him a good licking?
Sam—I'm just waiting.
Jim—Waiting? What for?
Sam—Waiting until I catch her with a little chap.

That the age of a fish can be told by the circles on its scales is not news to us. We know a lot of poor fish right here in Kingston whose ages can be told by the circles under their eyes.

Chaplain (to prisoner)—Never mind, my friend; these afflictions are only for a season. We are here today and gone tomorrow.
Prisoner—You may be, but I ain't.

The world grows better. Each generation outlaws the methods by which its predecessors got rich.

The quickest way to make a man feel that he's leading a dog's life, is to start barking at him.

Wife—I wish I could think up something especially nice to give as prizes at my bridge party.
Her Husband—Well, if the toes of the husbands of the other members are sticking out the way mine are, I'd suggest you give socks for their unlucky mates.

PLAY HELD AT ZENA COUNTRY CLUB SUCCESSFUL

Zena, July 31.—Friday and Saturday were successful evenings for the players of the Zena Country Club when they presented the three act comedy, "Professor Nonsense," at the Zena Country Club for large and appreciative audiences.

It is a rather difficult thing to especially mention any one of the actors who took part in the play as every one of them did exceptionally well.

The third act was one of a grand climax. The play ended in the preparation for attending a costume ball at the club. As each of the players came in on the stage with their costumes, one could hear the ohs and ahs of the audience. There were butterflies, a lady bug, a katydid, a lightning bug, a luna moth, a gossamer, a gnat, and the devil himself. After having such a strenuous time in the house of bugs, Lena, the color maid, felt herself ready for heaven and came in last with a pair of white wings ready for flight, much to the amusement of the audience.

The costumes were beautiful and with a dimmed light and when all were gathered together on the stage presented a scene from Wonderland. The young folks made all their costumes themselves and deserve a great deal of credit for their excellent work and originality.

The play was written for the young folks by Dan Lynch, who is the author of the many other plays so successfully produced before by the Zena Country Club players.

The cast was as follows: Patry Love—Edna Holmizer, Mrs. Love—Fred Thais, Jr.; Bill Love—Elmer Hung; Violet Love—Anna Klementis, Prof. Nonsense—Julius Tomassy; Nickleena—Helen Long; Prunella Pips—Julia Thais; Gypsy Green—Julia Klementis; Lena, colored maid—Blanche Long.

The committee in charge: Julia Tomassy, Julia Klementis, Edna Holmizer and Fred Thais, Jr.

Directors were Julius Tomassy and Julia Klementis.

Curtain and lights—Erwin Holmizer.

Door committee—Fred Thais, Jr. and Lewis Long.

Kitchen committee—Mr. and Mrs. A. Mox Holmizer.

On Friday evening there was dancing and the music was furnished by an orchestra composed of Austin Simmons at the piano, Floyd Simmons, violin, Sam Cohen, saxophone, and Palmer Cartright, drums.

Saturday evening music was played between the acts by Mrs. Dan Lynch.

At The Theatres

Today

Kingston: "Stamboul Quest" Starring Myrna Loy for the first time, this tale of oriental intrigue is pretty romantic and mysterious stuff, and it concerns a woman whose gift of making men turn band springs whenever they see her, causes much danger, excitement and love before the show is finished.

Miss Loy is capable in her first starring part, and she is ably supported by George Brent and Lionel Atwill.

Orpheum: "Stand Up and Cheer" Warner Baxter, Shirley Temple, Madge Evans, Ralph Morgan, Jimmie Dunn, Nigel Bruce, Sylvia Froos, Nick Forman and a host of other players and radio entertainers gang together in this talkie for the express purpose of selling good old America to its people. In other words, this is a patriotic show, and it tries to get across the idea that smiles and dancing and laughter will keep the wolf from the door. Keep people happy and all will be well is the theme song of this talkie.

Broadway: "Marrying Widows" and "Let's Try Again" Matrimonial troubles and how to find the humor in them is expressed in the first feature, with John Mack Brown and Judith Allen in the featured roles. There are times when the show is really humorous. "Let's Try Again" is the story of a youthful love that is lost, and the later attempt of the two people to recapture it later in life. The show stars Clive Brook and Diana Wynward.

Tomorrow: Kingston: Same; Orpheum: Same; Broadway: Same.

Krumville and Lyonsville Churches. The services will be discontinued in these churches during the month of August on account of the vacation of the pastor. Services will be resumed the first Sunday in September.

Mrs. Reuben Barrett, who was very ill, is improving.

To Be Family Affair When Trotters Meet	Goshen, August 1.—(Special)—
It'll be more or less of a family affair in two cases when the Ragging Grand invades Goshen August 13-15 for six days of fast harness footwork during the grand circuit card arranged by William H. Cane, owner of Good Time Park and noted sportsman. In two of the major stables, kin will battle kin when they get the word.

Perhaps the most famous combination on the major trotting circuit until recently was Ben White, future magician and his son, Gibby. Outfitted in the black and white silks of their public stable, father and son made an impressive showing in every race in which they started. A short time ago, however, Gibby had to give up racing for this season due to illness, although all his pals expect him back next year.

The teamwork which marked Ben's and Gibby's careers is carried on to a like degree between Will Caton, famous for training trotters in imperial Russia, as well as in America, and his skillful son, Johnny, a real chip off the old block. Johnny represents the fourth generation of harness horse mentors and pilots in the Caton family, with every indication pointing to this youngster upholding the traditions carried on by his father, uncle, grandfather and great-grandfather.

Johnny and his dad are to make their bow to fandom here in numerous events in which their fast steps are entered. However, in Sam Caton, Will's brother, the Catons of the east have a tough rival in a Caton from the south. Ringing enthusiasts therefore, should be treated to father-against-son-brother-against-brother during the grand circuit card.

"Doc" H. M. Parrish and his brother, Darl, form the second active family combine. While "Doc" usually holds the center of the spot, light, having won the most races of any big time driver during the last six out of seven years, Darl is in no small measure responsible for the success of the red, white and blue stable.

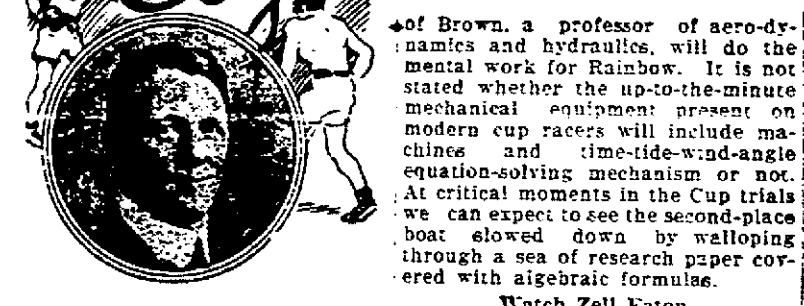

With these two "family affairs" stables sporting unusually fast working trotters and pacers, this year, fans are sure of thrills and maybe a few spills as the Ragging Grand invades its speed session here August 13-15, with the $4,000 Hambletonian scheduled for Wednesday, August 15.

Rowed Mediterranean — R. Edgren

Jack Caldwell's dog caught and brought in a big trout after a half-hour struggle in the Missouri R. near Great Falls, Montana.

By Robert Edgren
And Hoffman, manager-in-chief of Max Baer, is one of those men who believe in waiting until the stakes are big before risking his fighter in the ring. Baer could have had several bouts after beating Schmeling, but And preferred to wait a year for a chance to fight Carnera. For a while it looked as though Carnera would never sign to meet Max, but he did, and Hoffman won the gamble. He is now holding Max out of the ring until June, 1935, and by that time Max will have had one fight in about two years.

There was some attempt to build up Piermonte as a possible challenger for the heavyweight title. Although the Italian had been out of the ring for a couple of years and didn't show a great deal, when he was fighting Madison Square Garden was planning in having him fight Maxie Rosenbloom. In order to make Enzo look very good just in case he won, Rosenbloom was given a great boost as a "leading heavyweight," who was more dangerous to Max Baer than the present heavyweight contenders.

This ballyhoo exploded with a boom when Lee Ramage, who is not taken very seriously as a heavyweight challenger for the title, was lost to Rosenbloom around the ring in a Pacific Coast bout. It didn't cost Maxie R. his light heavyweight title for the sole reason that Ramage had been forced to enter the ring over the light-heavy limit to get the bout.

Few Dangerous Opponents.
Meanwhile Jimmy Johnston was talking loud words to the effect that he would hold the Rosenbloom-Piermonte fight even if the New York Boxing Commission had forbidden it on the grounds that Piermonte wasn't good enough to be in the same ring with Maxie. This was pure bluff as Johnston has no power to hold a fight if the boxing commission refuses permission. He just can't.

It looks as though Steve Hamas or Art Lasky—or even Carnera—have a good chance for the title match. A funny thing is that Carnera may be a little too big for the other challengers, but that the smaller, quicker men might give Baer a better fight in a championship bout. Somebody who can keep away from Baer's right, and tie him up long enough for him to get tired might be able to outpoint him in a title bout. I doubt if there is a heavyweight around who has more than a very slim chance of defeating Baer by a knockout.

To hit a knockout punch a man must step in with his blows and put some body weight behind them. This would be Baer's meat, for anybody who would step in and punch with him could be hit, and hit hard. It's those skip away, tap, and clinch boys that bother Baer.

Brain Trusters Direct Yachts.
Over in England cup-challenging skipper Sopwith's crew walked out. They would not sail the Endeavour over the Atlantic and race it against the American boat for a meagre £250 win or £750 loss per week each. Perhaps it was a sympathy strike to aid the San Francisco marine workers. Perhaps they felt that the boat was fitted by the presence of Mrs. Sopwith as a member of the amateur crew. At any rate England seems to be well on her way out of the depression when sailors can turn down $250 a week for cup racing.

Americans reply to England's yacht-racing labor trouble with the appointment of a yacht-racing brain trust. Prof. Richard Fay, of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, whose forte is electrical engineering, has been retained to navigate Yankee, and Prof. Zenas Bliss, receiving.

Kingston Spas To Play Diers Nine
Thursday Night at Block Park the Kingston Spas will meet the Diers A. S. The Spas have added a couple of new players to their roster, and feel sure with their new lineup they can take the Diers over. Brauner and Ashdown will probably form their battery while Fitzpatrick and Mains will toss them over for the Diers with H. Wenzel doing the regate Yankee, and Prof. Zenas Bliss, receiving.

THE Spotlight BY GRANTLAND RICE

The Weight Lossers.
How many pounds will an athlete lose in one of the hardest sports? This argument has been tossed in the general direction of those disputing from a number of points.
The statement that Big Bill Edwards once lost 30 or 40 pounds in a football game helped to give the debate added impetus.
Naturally, the starting weight of the contestant has a lot to do with the matter. Big Bill Edwards, weighing over 250, would lose far more displacement than Little Bill Johnston, whose starting weight was 115, or thereabouts.

Football coaches tell me that some of their heavier men, playing in warm days, lose from 5 to 10 pounds, despite the fact they are in the condition and trained for the day.
In 1925, through the open golf championship at Worcester, the temperature one day registered 107 around the course.
At that time Bob Jones was a trade on the clubhouse side, wearing 172 pounds. At the end of 36 holes, staggering along through the heat, heat, heat, Bob at nightfall discovered a net loss of 12 pounds. This was an all-day attrition in which was also involved one of the heaviest "dive" strains and one of the roughest mental assaults he had ever undergone.

The slender Willie Macfarlane, who finally won after 35 extra holes, lost more than 6 pounds.
Most of this weight returns before the next day. Food, water and rest build up in a hurry. But the amount of weight lost in two hours' hard play on a warm day can be amazing. And the second amazing feature concerns the speedy return to normal figures.

The Babe and a Weight Secret.
"I'll tell you a secret about this weight stuff," Babe Ruth said recently. "I have never believed in training off too much weight when you have a long season to face. The secret I mention is this—the year I hit my 60 home runs I was supposed to weigh around 225. I actually weighed 250 or 252."
"I never felt better than I felt that year—all the way through. I was stronger and in better health. I could hit the ball with less effort, because that was close to my natural weight."
"Since then I've trained down under 220 at times, and haven't felt so well. At that lighter weight I seemed to lose a lot of power—you know, the old feeling that you have to press to get any extra distance."
"How much have you lost in a ball game?" I asked the Babe.
"I've lost around ten or twelve pounds on hot days," he said, "especially when I was pitching."

McLarnin's Weight.
If Babe Ruth could feel a lack of power from taking off too much weight, it is easy to understand part of the trouble that assailed Jimmy McLarnin in his battle against Barney Ross.
McLarnin weighed 142 that afternoon, 5 pounds below the welterweight limit and also 5 pounds below his normal figures.
As Ruth explains, this meant that he had to press to get the feeling of power, and you'll find that pressing and timing make poor teammates. They never go together, except upon some rare occasion.
McLarnin should be a much more effective scrapper at 147 than he was at 142. He should be able to punch harder with less effort, which is the big idea in effective timing.

The Best Ball Club.
"Dear Sir:
"From the days of the old Orioles, down through the golden years of baseball, I have watched the almost endless parades of so-called matchless infielders, super individual stars, and alleged unbeatable teams of teams. From Ed Delahanty to Ruth I have glimpsed the sluggers; Cobb in his glory was a joy to my eyes; Cy Young, Mathewson, Walsh, Joss, Johnson and Hubbell have passed in review before my grandstand seat. All great—yes, but not the greatest."
"The standard club of all time was the Chicago White Sox of from 1917 to late 1920. Curse and revile them if you will (I have done it myself a thousands times), the fact still remains that, with half the players deliberately trying to lose the 1919 series, the club as a whole looked better than many others that have since won the annual baseball classic. Eddie Collins once stated that no one knew just how good the team really was; half the players were not on speaking terms with their mates during the 1919 and 1920 seasons. And Eddie has never hesitated in stating that those same old Sox constituted the greatest outfit he ever played with."

"Yours very truly
JOHN D. CAHILL."

Eddie Collins—Buck Weaver—Joe Jackson—Hap Felsch—Ray Schalk—Eddie Cicotte—this group came about as close to being an all-star cast as any line-up baseball has known.
The sinister history of more than one star from this group wrecked what should have been one of the greatest of all baseball chapters.

Hercules Smack The Mayflowers By 4-1 In Downtown League Tilt

The Hercules Powder Co., champions of the first half of the Downtown League, slipped into first place for the second round last evening at Hasbrouck Park by virtue of their 4-1 win over the Mayflower nine.
Bill Thomas, gracing the slab for the Powdermen, had Jack Clair's boys tied up in a knot. He fanned no less than 10 batters and allowed only three scattered hits. The Mayflowers got their lone tally in the seventh frame when Didrik walked and scored on a double to right field by Tomoeskie.

In the second inning the first Hercules crossed the platter. Dulin singled and scored when Niles smacked a liner over short. They gathered three more in the fourth frame when Rider started a rally that saw him reach first on a slow bouncer. Dulin and Niles hit singles that scored Rider, and both runners crossed the platter on a single by Murdoch and a long fly by Hotelling.

In tonight's Downtown game the Schwenk and Kelly nine will come to grip with the Reno A. C.

Loughran-Risko Fight.
New York, Aug. 1 (AP).—Tommy Loughran, of Philadelphia, and Johnny Risko, of Cleveland, heavyweight veterans of boxing's journey, met tonight in the municipal stadium, Freeport, L. I., in their fifth round bout—this one for championship. Loughran won their first three matches and Risko the most recent in Chicago.

Parrot Fever.
Investigations show that parrots and parakeets are not the only birds that suffer from psittacosis, or parrot fever.

Britain Turns Back U. S. Davis Cup Team As Perry Beats Shields

Wimbledon, England, August 1.—(AP)—Beaten once more for the Davis Cup, the famed international trophy that's fast taking on the aspects of a miracle, America's youngsters wearily put aside all thoughts of tennis today and got ready to come home.

There was but one thing to console them at the end of America's seventh successive failure to recover the cup France took overseas in 1927. They lost the challenge round to England 4 to 1 in matches, but they had given Wimbledon's faithful a three day view of some of the best and most courageous tennis ever played on grass courts.

With the issue squarely up to him, Francis X. Shields, the tall, broad-shouldered New Yorker, gave Fred Perry, England's ace and the greatest tennis player in the world, one of the bitterest fights of his career before bowing 6-4, 4-6, 6-2, 15-13, in the match that decided the series.

ALL AGREE on ONE THING !

Different incomes, different interests—and they live in different worlds. Yet there is ONE thing all three of these Kingston women have in common. They all know how to live smartly, stylishly and well within their means. All three do their shopping in the Daily Freeman.

Cake baking may some day give way to country clubs and sewing circles to social secretaries. Bank accounts may grow and living habits change through the years. But there is ONE habit that none of these women will ever unlearn. It is that habit of thrifty buying—of shopping REGULARLY through the ads in the Daily Freeman.

$1,500 a year or $15,000 a year — smart living means smart budgeting either way. Washing machines or V-16's — the big thing is to get the most and best for your money and still have more money left over.

How to be stylish-though-thrifty is every woman's problem. It is a problem with as many different answers as there are incomes and the Daily Freeman ads give you all of them. The mere fact that this newspaper is read by nearly every shopper in town guarantees that you will get more for your money through the Daily Freeman ads whether your buying allowance is $500 a month or $500 a year.

For if the Daily Freeman reaches almost everybody, the merchant who advertises in it isn't getting his full money's worth unless his story is interesting to almost everybody. And the one and only thing that every shopper everywhere is interested in is Value. Granted that Value is something of a Peas-Porridge-Hot proposition. Granted that some women like it spelled P-R-I-C-E and others spell it Q-U-A-L-I-T-Y. That just means the Daily Freeman advertiser has to give plenty of both in his offerings. Since Quality plus a Reasonable Price MAKE Value, everybody is satisfied!

And speaking of satisfying everybody! The Daily Freeman has been bringing more pleased customers to more merchants and a lower cost of better living to those pleased customers for years. If that isn't keeping all Kingston happy, what is?

WHETHER YOUR INCOME IS
$1,500 or $15,000

You'll Make It Buy More If You Read The Ads Regularly

Rain Need In Most Sections of State

Ithaca, N. Y., Aug. 1.—The drought, near a record, continues.

Most of the north half of the state and the extreme west and southwest are much in need of rain, says the weekly summary of weather and crop conditions issued today by the United States Department of Agriculture Weather Bureau at Cornell University.

"Temperatures for the week averaged somewhat above normal," continues the summary. "Local rains, some heavy, occurred over the south-central section, the Hudson Valley, and the southeast. There were also scattered showers in other sections."

In some of the drought sections pastures are about burnt up and cultivated crops will be a failure unless rains come soon. Some rain occurred on Long Island, but more rain is needed there for potatoes and cauliflower.

"Potatoes are doing fairly well, but in many sections they need rain badly. Beans are standing up well, although in some localities they begin to show the effect of dry weather. Cabbage is doing up in some places, in other sections it is looking good. Truck crops in the west portion have been injured considerably by the drought."

These Warm Weather Appetites Challenge The Cook's Ingenuity

But New York State Farms Offer a Wealth of Palatable Food To Help Her, Says Commissioner Baldwin

By CHARLES H. BALDWIN, Commissioner, Department of Agriculture and Markets, Albany, New York.

IN the hot summer time, when temperature is frequently high and humidity weighs unbearably, care must be exercised by the housewife in planning meals that are cool, refreshing and particularly attractive to the appetite.

Cool, cool salads and desserts usually become the basis of such warm weather meals. In these warm days there should be a great increase in the use of fruits, green vegetables and many fruit juices. Beverages such as tomato juice, grape juice, orange juice, lemon juice and cool, rich, pure milk, or milk mixed with fruit juices, chocolate and other flavorings, are delicious, refreshing and highly desirable as food.

Value of Fruits, Perspiration is the body's means of keeping the temperature normal when the outside is often at fever range. Fruit, fruit beverages and green vegetables supply an abundance of water, ideally flavored and attractive, to replace the drained body supplies. In addition to the water, fruits and vegetables furnish the best sources of alkaline salts which when absorbed into the blood neutralize the detrimental and often dangerous acid which tends to accumulate.

The summer is above all the time to reduce the calories or heat units in our food. Green vegetables and raw fruits are ideal for furnishing a satisfying health producing bulk with a minimum number of heat units.

The good meal planner will seek out from the many modern sources recipes and menus that will supply interesting and attractive ways of fruits and vegetables and dairy dishes and drinks. And what an array of fruits and vegetables our Empire State offers!—berries of all kinds, cherries, apples, grapes, peaches, plums, rhubarb, radishes, lettuce, celery.

Providing Flavor, The modern refrigerator offers a wonderful new modern opportunity for the housewife to prepare cool, crisp, dainty meals while the day is young and to have them ready to serve in fresh, tasty form, during the warmer parts of the day.

The refrigerator also offers a great opportunity to buy fruits, vegetables, meats and dairy products in large quantities and store them in good condition ready for use throughout the week.

The important, illusive thing to provide in this warm weather is that glorified flavor, that spicy tempting turn, that cool room, that tidy attractive table and service that will make the summer meal the most attractive, restful and pleasing of the year.

Democratic Campaign Headquarters Hum

Washington, Aug. 1 (AP).—Hurja, thought today issued a long letter, household book that he calls "The Campaign Book" and "The Republican Party."

Hurja, who is Democratic chairman James A. Farley's next letter man on political matters, set aside the hum of Democratic leadership—a hum growing more intense in preparation for the drive to name the new deal in November.

Hurja is in charge of strategists. The book he has issued contains a mass of information on the prospects of every Democratic and Republican candidate for the 74th Congress.

On the basis of a questionnaire and a nation-wide poll, Democratic headquarters knows the problems confronting every Democratic and what assistance they think they need to defeat Republicans.

All this data, which is kept up to the minute and cross-checked, is tabulated in Hurja's book. He said it proved that the President is more popular than ever. To illustrate, he said that out of 32 Democratic representatives in state northern states who voted to sustain the President's veto of the veterans' relief bill, five were Senatorial candidates and another was a prospect.

"Most of those who voted to override the President's veto thought it was necessary to get the veterans' vote," Hurja said. "But it was a double-bitted axe which cut both ways. Those who voted to override the veto are being criticized for not standing by the president."

"When you come up you'll find OLD GOLDS!"

says Mae West

"It seems to me that the occasional smoker is a better judge of a cigarette than the constant smoker. At least, your occasional smoker is apt to be more critical."

"Off the screen I never smoke. On the screen, I smoke when the part demands it. And I want a cigarette that is non-irritating, mild and easy on the throat. After trying many brands I settled upon Old Gold as my 'picture smoke.' It's delightfully smooth—and free of bite—and doesn't give the least discomfort to the throat."

"If I ever decide to take up smoking in earnest, you may be sure Old Gold will be my brand."

(Signed) MAE WEST

The net of it is this, Miss West: No better tobacco grows than is used in Old Gold. And it's pure. That's why Old Golds are easy on the THROAT and NERVES.
